POTENTIAL "INDIVIDUAL" BENEFICIARIES

STEP

Identify those children and/or other family members who are most likely a possible beneficiary of your estate. Please use full legal names. Note: Listing a person in this section is not a firm indication of your decision to provide for a particular individual. Rather, it is simply a means of identifying individuals for discussion purposes. (Insert additional sheets, if necessary)

Special Note When Identifying Children: For "Children" use "JT" if both spouses are the parents, "H" if husband is the parent, "W" if wife is the parent, "S" if a single parent.

CONCERNS & ANXIETIES

Our objective is to assist clients in identifying their concerns and anxieties. All too often in the planning process, a client will discover that there are other, more pressing concerns than the one that caused them to begin the planning process. Please review the following risks that we frequently hear from clients, identify those risks of which you are concerned, and provide us with some sense about how concerned you are with that particular risk. This information will assist us in focusing our conversations toward the issues that are the most pressing to you.

Level of Concern (if any)

Tax Concerns	None	Low	Medium	High
Risk of the IRS "inheriting" half the estate when we die	п
Risk of capital gains taxes paid on the sale of property
		_
Risk of unnecessary income taxes being paid on investment assets	Ц
Family Concerns
Risk of persons other than those we select will gain custody of any minor child	ren. 🗆
Risk of a child or other beneficiary losing his or her inheritance to creditors, lawsuits or to a divorcing spouse	□
Risk of a child or other beneficiary losing his or her inheritance due to mismanagement of the money
Risk that upon the death of a child or other beneficiary, any inheritance received by that person might pass to a spouse (who may later remarry) rather than passing to a grandchild or other preferred heir	□
Risk that an inheritance passing to a minor child or grandchild might be squandered or stolen by the person in charge of managing the money for that grandchild
Risk that an inheritance received by a child or other beneficiary who has a disability would render them ineligible for governmental benefits	□
Risk that assets left to your spouse (whether by virtue of joint tenancy or by wil might not pass to your intended heirs as a result of your spouse remarrying
Risk of unnecessary litigation from heirs who receive less than they think they are entitled to
Risk of estate passing unequally due to nature of assets owned, such as where a business comprises most of the value of the estate	□
Risk that heirs will not fully appreciate the values and virtues used to create the inheritance
Risk that parents, who may need financial assistance, are not provided for	🗆

	Level of Concern (if any)
	None	Low	Medium	High
Disability Concerns
Risk of loss of control over assets in event of disability
Risk of legal guardianship in event of disability
Risk of unwanted efforts made to save your life if you feel that it's best to cease such efforts and die peaceably and without pain
Risk that health care personnel will not disclose health care information to loved ones due to lack of proper HIPAA releases
Risk of an unnecessary guardianship over an incapacitated adult child in order to make health care decisions for that child
Creditor Concerns
Risk of frivolous lawsuits
Risk of loss of assets to nursing home
Risk that a creditor of a joint tenant may seize the jointly-owned property to satisfy the debt of the other joint tenant
Post-Death Concerns
Risk of unnecessary costs and delays associated with the estate passing through probate
Risk of having to sell assets in a "fire sale" in order to create the liquidity needed to pay taxes and expenses
Risk that the person(s) charged with managing your affairs after you've passed will innocently make mistakes because he or she is unaware of what is required and is unaware of the personal liability for those mistakes	-
				Ц
Risk of private matters unnecessarily being made public

INCOME AND ASSET ASSESSMENT

Determining the ownership, value and character of your assets is important to your estate and legacy plan. The title "ownership" is important for tax and transfer matters. The "value" will be significant in determining potential tax liability and whether such asset will be counted as "available" for purposes of Medicaid. The "character" is relevant in assessing the manner by which the asset can transfer.

Assets Information

The values listed are for discussion purposes only. A more accurate list will be obtained at a later date. You may use the back of this paper to continue a list in each category of asset.

To identify the Owner of an asset, use "JTS" for joint ownership with spouse; "JTO" for joint ownership with non-spouse; "H" for Husband as sole owner; "W" for Wife as sole owner; or "T" if owned by a revocable trust that you have created.

Bank and Savings Accounts. To identify type of account, use "CA" for checking account; "SA" for savings account; "CD" for certificate of deposit; "MM" for money market account. Do not include IRAs or 401(k)s here.
